Introducing My Measurement Assistant

ABB's advanced web application for measurement devices

ABB Support. Now at your fingertips.

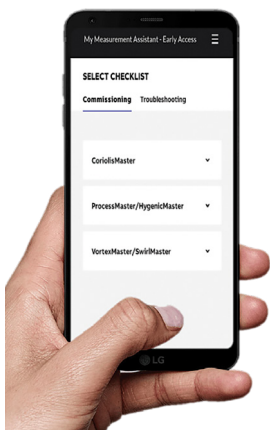

You rely on ABB instruments and analyzers to drive production reliability and performance. But every now and then you face an issue that you have to troubleshoot—urgently.

Wouldn't it be convenient if you had a Level 1 or Level 2 Engineer on hand 24/7? An engineer who has the domain expertise, best practices, troubleshooting guides and tutorials you need to address your challenges efficiently?

Now you do, with ABB's My Measurement Assistant.

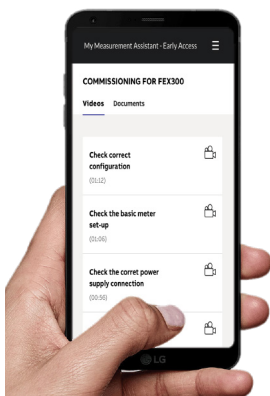

My Measurement Assistant is an advanced web application for measurement device support that:

- Saves you time
- Increases your knowledge and expertise
- Helps you when and where you need help the most
